SEMINAR FACILITATOR

with For the Kids' Sake
Lynnwood and Everett, WA

How does the Seminar Facilitator contribute to our Mission?

The Seminar Facilitator co-facilitates court-mandated seminars for parents, to help them understand how children are affected by separation and parental conflict. In doing so, the Seminar Facilitator helps to support the well-being of the parents and children in the midst of conflict. The two-person facilitation team leading the For the Kids' Sake seminar provides parents who are involved in divorce, paternity or custody proceedings with information on topics such as protecting children from parental conflict, recognizing when divorce/separation is affecting children, better communication between the adult parties, and resources available for parents and children.

This is an excellent opportunity for professionals interested in supporting family and community wellness to do so in a different setting for one to a few days each month.

Qualifications and Requirements:

- Master's degree in Social Work, Psychology, or related field is required
- Social Workers, Psychologists and Mental Health Counselors are required to have current registration/licensure, as a professional in good standing
